In accordance with the provisions of controlling law, even notwithstanding the fact that an exemption noted above may apply, the City hereby publishes the following information:

1. Summary of the proposed ordinance (must include a statement of the public purpose, such as serving the public health, safety, morals and welfare):

Ordinance 2023-13 is to close a 25-foot right-of-way known as the southern half of a certain right-of-way designated as Whitlock Street of Columbia Heights Subdivision and alleys lying within Block "M" of Columbia Heights Subdivision recorded in Plat Book A Page 162 of the Public Records of Alachua County, Florida. The closing of the right-of-way and alleys is to enhance the use of the adjoining property owners. There is not present or future public need to use the right-of-way or alleys in question. It is proper and in the best interest and welfare of the City and its Citizens to close the aforementioned property.

2. An estimate of the direct economic impact of the proposed ordinance on private, for-profit businesses in the City, if any:

- (a) An estimate of direct compliance costs that businesses may reasonably incur;
- (b) Any new charge or fee imposed by the proposed ordinance or for which businesses will be financially responsible; and
- (c) An estimate of the City's regulatory costs, including estimated revenues from any new charges or fees to cover such costs.

There is no direct compliance costs that businesses may reasonably incur.
There is no new charge or fee imposed by the proposed ordinance.
There is no anticipated regulatory costs associated with this ordinance.

3. Good faith estimate of the number of businesses likely to be impacted by the proposed ordinance:

Zero.

4. Additional information the governing body deems useful (if any):

The ordinance has no fiscal impact beyond that to the adjacent landowner who is petitioning to have the right-of-way and alleys closed.
