

Historic Preservation Board

The Historic Preservation Board administers enforcement of historic codes within the defined historic district. They are charged with the reasonable enforcement of these codes to maintain a continuous development within the historic district.