compare myself to that of a Guardian. A Guardian is one who takes care of their duties and responsibilities. I will see to the jobs getting done by rolling up my sleeves and putting my shoulder to the grinding wheel. As a Guardian, I respect law and order. I believe there is a time and place for all things. Yes I am a down to earth, content, loyal, disciplined and a team player (as long as the game is played fairly). I am a Guardian that believes in cooperating and doing what is right and justly for the betterment of all people.
