

Art Walk Returns to Downtown Historic High Springs

News Release Date
10-11-2021

The seasonal Art Walk events return to historic downtown High Springs on Saturday, October 16th, 2021, from 12pm to 5pm featuring local artists and makers situated both inside stores and on the sidewalks of downtown, with some locations featuring live painting and demonstrations showcasing High Springs' walkable, charming small-town hospitality that High Springs has become famous for.

October's featured art will include photography, wood sculptures, resin, macrame, pottery, acrylics, chain saw pumpkin carving, a Lichtenberg demonstration, and much more. Unique Notions will celebrate its three-year anniversary with an enter-to-win $50 gift certificate with purchase.

The Art Walk season will continue through 2021 with additional Art Walks on November 20 and December 18. This seasonal monthly event is an opportunity for local artisans and artists to demonstrate and display their talents and offer their works for sale in storefronts throughout the downtown area. Participating merchants will offer specials and sales during the event.
