

The High Springs City Commission is responsible for passing the city's budget, setting the millage rate and approving ordinances and resolutions. The commission consists of five members, each serving three-year terms. Commissioners run for a designated seat on the commission, but are elected, and serve the city at-large. To contact the commission as a whole, email [citycommission \[at\] highsprings.gov](mailto:citycommission@highsprings.gov), or see individual contact information below.
